

Göteborgs Stadstriennial
2015 2018 2021

OPEN CALL!!
GOTHENBURG
CITY TRIENNIAL
2021

Gothenburg City Triennial invites the public to submit ideas and suggestions for the program of summer of 2021. No idea is too small, bigg, complicated, impossible or simple.

The suggestion should be adjusted to current covid-19 recommendations.

Application is free and can be submitted in either Swedish or English.

Deadline
1/11 2020

Illustration of bodies in a city's in-between spaces.

What can you imagine happening during Gothenburg City Triennial?

Gothenburg City Triennial invites the public to submit ideas and suggestions for the program of the summer of 2021. No idea is too small, big, complicated, impossible or simple. A few will be chosen and realized.

The City Triennial asks for the unthinkable, simple, large and small that activates urban spaces and in-between spaces in within the city. Suggestions that claims a space or a surface and welcomes people to meet and interact - in a pandemic-friendly way. Ideas and suggestions for the city, by the city - such that includes walkers, cyclists, kids and youth, seniors and all those in between will be premiered. It can be a LAN-party, a dance battle on the roof of Nordstan or a ground painting along the avenue.

Gothenburg City Triennial invites professional as well as non-professional artists, designers, architects, creators and thinkers to suggest an idea for a program/structure/platform which can be realized as part of the City Triennial. Every idea that will be realized receives a budget and support in the form of infrastructure, production support and administration.

We want you to describe your idea in max 4 A4 pages in PDF-format, alternatively a linked video of max 4 minutes. The application should contain a budget, plan for implementation, who you are and contact information.

The idea is suggested to take place during the summer of 2021, at one specific moment or repeatedly. It could be something that you normally do with a twist or something you've dreamt of but didn't think possible.

- » Application is free and can be submitted in either Swedish or English.
- » Send application to:
stadstriennialen@sbk.goteborg.se

Ideas can be submitted between 22nd of September and 1st of November.

What happens next?

A jury will choose 3-5 ideas which will be made public in January 2021. All of the applications will be published.

Every chosen idea will be assigned a producer to help with preparations, such as permits and marketing. The triennial can also support with a budget of max 40 000 SEK.